National Book Trust Books damaged in Floods

2107. SHRI CHITTA BASU: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that books worth rupees fifty lakhs of National Book Trust were damaged in April, 1983 and August, 1984 due to floods;

(b) if so, whether any enquiry committee had been appointed to go through the lacuane and suggest measures so that such damages may not occur in future;

(c) what are the details of the findings and measures suggested by the enquiry committee; and

(d) what steps have been taken by Government to curb such damage to books of National Book Trust?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI):

(a) Yes, Sir. Books worth Rs. 43.98 lakhs were damaged in floods in April, 1983 and August, 1984.

(b) to (d) Since the basement was flooded because of a natural calamity due to unprecedented rains, no formal enquiry was held. After the loss of books in 1983, the Trust took the following measures to avoid damage from water entering the basement of the Trust building:

(i) lower portions of racks upto a height of about 4 feet were kept free of books so that the soil water may not damage the books.

(ii) sand bangs upto a height of 3 feet were placed in front of all the ventilators a month and half before the monsoon season.

(iii) The entire stock of books and racks in the godown was insured against loss by flood, fire etc.

All books from this particular godown have been removed. It has been decided not to stock books in this godown, and new space has been hired.

Efforts are being made to construct a new building for the Trust.

An insurance claim for Rs. 53.93 lakhs was preferred by the National Book Trust towards the value of the damaged books. A sum of Rs. 37.76 lakhs has since been received from the insurance company against the claim.
